

SESSION TWELVE—EXEMPLARY LEADERSHIP

1. Being the right kind of example is one of a leader-worth-following's most powerful tools for influence. Agree or disagree?
2. Paul, humbly but boldly, challenged people to follow him as he followed Christ. Are you comfortable issuing that same challenge?
3. From the narrative of Paul's journey to Rome (Acts 27), Jimmy mentioned ten marks of a leader worth following: credibility, initiative, sound judgment, confidence, strengthens others, instills hope, lives convictions, displays courage and perseverance, and motivates and gets results. Which of these are your strengths and weaknesses? Are there other marks that were overlooked?
4. Where can you improve to become more of a leader worth following?
5. What was your best learning from our study together?
